FLINT WOMEN'S FORUM ANNOUNCES SPEAKERS
FOR 2013 CELEBRATION OF WOMEN EVENT

Three Mid-Michigan multi-generational female icons from Frankenmuth's Historic Bavarian Inn Restaurant and Lodge to speak as part of their 125th anniversary celebration.

Flint, MI – The Flint Women's Forum (FWF) has announced their speakers for their 2013 annual Celebration of Women Annual Meeting and Luncheon. Ninety-one year-old Dorothy Zehnder, owner of Bavarian Inn Restaurant and Lodge will address the crowd at the April 26, 2013 event, along with her daughter and lodge President, Judy Zehnder Keller and her granddaughter and restaurant General Manager, Amy Zehnder-Grossi.

These three generations of Zehnder women will share 125 years of stories, trials and tribulations of running a fourth-generation world-class business in the state of Michigan's top tourist destination, Frankenmuth. The event will be held at The Flint Golf Club in Flint, Michigan from 11:30am until approx. 1:30pm. More information to follow in early 2013. Those wishing to be added to the invitation list should contact Teresa McClelland Sargent, program chair for the Flint Women's Forum, at teresa@finanacialtaxplan.com.

ABOUT FWF

The purpose of the Flint Women's Forum is the advancement of women as a non-sectarian, non-partisan organization. The Flint Women's Forum brings together people of achievement and influence in the professions of the arts, science, education, industry, commerce and public service. Through educational programs and the exchange of ideas, experiences and resources, the members contribute to one another's professional advancement, increase the visibility of women leaders and facilitate the effectiveness of women in the community. They hold monthly lunch meetings the third Tuesday of each month.
